Since 1998 the band has been on the road with another singer. In 2001, leadsinger David decided to leave the band and Chuong (the Asian-flavoured guy) managed to convince the others of his amazing singing technique.

Immediately a lot of songs had been written and in march 2002 their first album "Seeing clearly for one moment" was recorded, which reflected the high potential the band gained through the time.

The band signed to the young and growing german punkrock label RP-Punkrock (www.rp-punkrock.com).

With their help and the help of their booking agency (www.totalhorrorbooking.com) A COMMON GROUND was often booked as a support act for famous bands.

They played several shows with Donots, Diesel Boy, Voodoo Glow Skulls, Undeclinable or Venerea and had been represented on a few compilations. They even obtained a hearing in Switzerland, France, Belgium and Luxembourg.

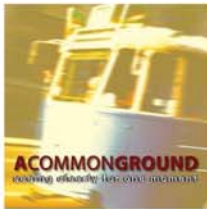

In 2003 they recorded their second album "Waiting for a change to come" and did a European Tour through the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Austria, Italy, France, Spain and Portugal.

RP-Punkrock released the album in europe and in 2004 it was released in Canada by Triple Threat Records (www.triplethreatrecords.com).

Their music is influenced by hard and aggressive elements but also by melodic mid-tempo parts, so if you´re into powerful, melodic and original punkrock you have no alternative but
A COMMON GROUND.

"Ein gutes Album, dass zeigt das auch deutsche Punkrockbands endlich mal konkurrenzfähig werden." (WFACTC)

"A COMMON GROUND brauchen aber keine Vergleiche zu scheuen, weder auf nationaler noch auf internationaler Ebene. Sehr professionell und gekonnt zelebrieren sie die Kunst melodischen Hardcorepunk alles andere als langweilig und eintönig klingen zu lassen."

"Das zweite Album des flotten, deutschen Fünfers A Common Ground mit dem Titel "Waiting For A Change To Come" weiss mit 10 abwechslungsreichen, melodischen, kraftvollen, ambitionösen Songs sehr zu gefallen. Absoluter Geheimtipp, meine Empfehlung! "

"Seeing Clearly for One Moment" will take this band a long way. A lot of bands only dream of starting out this good. There's still plenty of room for improvement, though, so I'm looking forward to their next step."

"To have this band on my rooster was good luck for my booking agency. I mean this band is getting better and bigger everyday and this is the way I want to work, too. And I think booking shows for them won't be hard, cause their live show is amazing."
